Criminal Threatening

On January 18, 2022 at approximately 3:15 AM, Manchester Police responded to 268 Spruce St for an incident involving a gun.

Upon arrival, police were able to speak with a male who reported having an argument with a woman on the first floor. He told officers that as the argument escalated, the woman was yelling loudly and picked up a gun and began waving it around. Concerned for his safety, the man wrestled the gun away from her and left the apartment.

Through the investigation, police learned that there may be more firearms in the apartment. As a precaution, police set up a perimeter and tried to make contact with the woman inside. After several hours of attempting to do this with no success, the SWAT team was activated.

Eventually the woman, identified as 46 year old Yahaira Olivier of Manchester, exited the building. Olivier was arrested and charged with Criminal Threatening with a Deadly Weapon and Resisting Arrest.
